

THE MONARCH

BABY SHOWER

Christy and Norma Hensler Davis are sponsoring a baby shower for Pastor Carolyn Lawrence and Min Park. It will be held in Bethany Hall on Saturday, November 15th at noon. All are invited and are asked to sign up on the available sheet in the Narthex for a potluck luncheon. Their baby is due in January. What an exciting event!

A baby shower registry is can be accessed through this QR code:

SALEM WELCOMES 12 NEW DISCIPLES

Kimberly and Don Evans have been married for 41 years and are residents of Charlestown Retirement Community. With a Math degree, Kimberly taught for 5 years. She then got an M.S. in Economics which led to a 22-year career at the U.S. Treasury Department. Don has a B.S. and M.S. in Electrical Engineering from Johns Hopkins University, and an advanced degree from George Washington University in Computer Design and Operation. Don applied his education to his 40-year career with Westinghouse/Northrup Grumman. Don and Kimberly met through their love of English Country Dancing. Kimberly loves to do embroidery, to read and to hike. Don has always loved to play piano and got to attend Peabody Prep.

If there was such a thing as an award for the oldest “new members” of Salem, Debbie and Mark Sanders would certainly be top contenders for that honor. While recently standing in the Wittenberg Room, they looked at the portraits of Salem’s pastors and noted who had led the congregation when Debbie’s father was growing up in the church.

That was just the beginning. Debbie was baptized and confirmed at Salem, and Mark was also baptized here just before the couple took their wedding vows before Salem’s altar. When their daughter and son came along, they, too, were baptized here.

But then John’s teaching position for what is now Verizon led them to Chicago. When he retired, they moved back. He pursued a second career, teaching math for the University of Phoenix and the Community College of Baltimore County at Catonsville. Once again retired, he spends a lot of time in his woodshop building, among other things, furniture.

As for Debbie, she is a lifelong organist. It was when she needed a page turner for an Easter cantata that she first met Mark. Since then, she has served at multiple congregations, and their family always worshiped where she played. Her recent positions as organist here in Catonsville include serving at Charlestown and Bishop Cummins Reformed Episcopal Church. Debbie is now retired. Because of that, and in light of the fact that they have lived in their Ellicott City home for more than forty years, they decided it was time to come home to Salem. Both Debbie and Mark have jumped headlong into Salem with various activities. She has joined the quilting group, and both of them have volunteered for Salem’s Marketplace. They are pleased that they have been welcomed with open arms. Debbie particularly appreciates the liturgical setting of the 11 a.m. Sunday service. You can find them in the fourth row on the righthand side of the sanctuary, except when Debbie is filling in as a substitute for Salem Ringers, or on the organist’s bench, when she fills in for Mary Miller.

Among Salem's newest members, there is one who truly needs no introduction. For the past four months, he's served us communion and led us in prayer, shared the Holy Scriptures and publicly professed his faith. And now, Pastor Stan Steele is officially one of us.

In case you've missed the story of his early years, Pastor Stan, a native of Columbia, South Carolina, is a lifelong Lutheran, baptized and confirmed in the faith. While a student at the University of South Carolina (he majored in International Relations), he was encouraged by his pastor to consider attending seminary after graduation. He did, and what followed is a lifetime of devotion to the work of the Church.

Although he had previously visited Salem for meetings, Pastor Stan first worshiped here on July 1. Unlike many other new members, though, he was not "church shopping," but rather, beginning his time as our interim senior pastor. Having known Salem "by reputation" (which is "very positive"), he characterizes Salem as a "healthy congregation," truly a "community church" where people care for each other.

Previously, Pastor Stan has served in various positions in and around the area. He is currently living in Elkridge and noted that this is something of a central location for him to be near his family. His wife Stephanie, an ordained Lutheran pastor, is officially retired but still serving a congregation in Carroll County on a part-time basis. Together, they have three adult children and two granddaughters.

As for his somewhat limited spare time, Pastor Stan enjoys relaxing with a good book; in addition to theological works, he favors mysteries and other novels. Non-fiction work, not so much.

Nor is Pastor Stan a golfer: He finds the game "tedious and exasperating." Members of the Steele family are longtime Eagles and Phillies fans, but Pastor Stan likes the Ravens "quite a lot." He agreed that he did not land in Baltimore during the Orioles' best days. Meanwhile, he continues to root for the Gamecocks of USC, a team that "continues to break my heart."

His musical taste is "eclectic," including classical music, jazz and classic rock. "I'm all over the dial." He enjoys British television shows. And having appreciated the recent Bob Dylan biopic, he is looking forward to seeing the new Springsteen movie. No horror films, please. Finally, Pastor Stan made his Salem Players debut in the recent production of "70, Girls, 70."

Asked what service he attends and where he sits (questions asked of new members for their "Monarch" biography), Pastor Stan laughed, "If there is a service, I'm there." Even when he is not leading Saturday evening service, he sometimes slips into a back pew.

When Salem welcomes a new Senior Pastor, Pastor Stan will be moving on. At that time, he said he looks forward to the bishop finding something else for him to do. "I'm not the retiring type."

Introductions to the remaining new disciples will appear in next month's Monarch

Children Ministry November

In October, we continued with student learning about God A-Z. We started the month with D - Dependable, and reading the story of The Red Sea. We worked on a group project and had several water-related activities. For E - Extraordinary, we read of Jesus and Peter Walking on Water. The children traced and decorated their feet to remember to trust in God and how he walked on water. F is for Faithful: we learned of Daniel and the Lions' Den and how Daniel continued to be faithful to God. The children did a group art project and made individual lion masks. For Reformation Sunday, the children watched a children's video on the Reformation. They enjoyed several activities related to the Reformation and had a snack of a marshmallow on a pretzel stick to represent the hammering of the thesis on the door.

CEA Needs

CEA Immediate Needs

CEA is requesting canned meals (think Chef Boyardee Ravioli or Spaghetti and Meatballs OR Dinty Moore Beef Stew or Chicken & Dumplings) to meet a current shortage in their pantry.

Please place your donations in the wooden CEA trunk in the hallway.

CEA Christmas Needs – Due to Salem no later than Noon, Sunday, December 7

CEA is requesting Hot Cocoa and $25 Walmart gift cards to include in their Christmas family baskets

Two ways to contribute -

$25 Walmart Gift Cards

Buy gift cards first

Put the card(s) in the CEA envelope provided and put it in the offering plate or give to Pat Jennings (11 am Sunday worship) or Jeff Tsai (9 am to 3 pm Monday through Friday)

Hot cocoa packages (Instant, add water only)

Leave purchased cocoa in the special CEA Christmas basket in the narthex

HISTORIC OLD SALEM NEWS

Annually, we celebrated All Saints at Old Salem to honor our dearly departed family and friends and had planned to do that on Sunday, November 2nd again this year. However, due to Bishop Gohl's 25th Anniversary Celebration at Salem at 3 pm as well as so many other events over the November 1st and 2nd weekend, sadly we decided to cancel the service this year.

Going forward we are still planning our Christmas bus trip on Wednesday, December 3rd to the Riverside Center for the Performing Arts in Fredericksburg, Virginia. It's a dinner theater serving you at your table from a choice of entrees before enjoying the wonderful "White Christmas" play. This is a perfect start for our Christmas celebrations. Have already reserved 36 of the 42 tickets available. Cost is $130 per person which includes dinner, show, tax, gratuity and transportation. Monies are now due and checks should be made payable to Historic Old Salem. Please either give them directly to Sharon Stanton or leave them in a sealed envelope in the Historic Old Salem mailbox outside the church office, 1st floor hallway. If you'd like to go, please contact me asap at memsha7311@gmail.com or call my home number.

Our next Quarterly Board meeting is Wednesday, November 20th at 7 pm at Salem Church in the Katie Luther Room, 905 Frederick Road. Everyone is invited to attend.

Contact Sharon for more information and/or to make reservations for the bus trip.

GUARDIANS OF EDEN NEWS

The Committee now meets on the SECOND MONDAY OF EACH MONTH {note change in DAY as available space is a challenge on the First Monday of each month}. The next date is November 10th at 7 p.m. in the Katie Luther Room 2nd floor and bring your preservation and environmental suggestions with you.

GOE will host the Adult Forum on Sunday, November 9th at 9:45 a.m. with a presentation on Community Solar. Everyone is invited to come learn how switching to solar power without needing to install solar panels on your home. A fascinating topic to say the least!

Ken Scarlatelli and Sharon Schueler are Co-Chairs of the GOE committee. Reach out to them should you have questions or would like to become a part of the committee. Ken's email is kenscarlatelli@gmail.com and Sharon's email is sharonpiscis57@gmail.com.

WHAT'S IN THE SHOWCASE

Salem Players took over the showcase in October for their production of 70 Girls 70.

November showcase highlights Dottie Bobart's collection.

Showcase displays are reserved now for the rest of 2025; however, if you would like to share your committee's projects/events or your own private collection, we are scheduling 2026. April 2026 is our first Open Date. If you would like to volunteer, please contact Sharon-memsha7311@gmail.com or leave a note with your name, showcase request date and idea in the Historic Old Salem mailbox outside the main church office. I'll contact you. Thank you

MARKETPLACE 2025 – SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 1ST

Dee and Sharon wish to thank all of the terrific and hardworking volunteers who helped make this year's Marketplace a success. Even though there was a different set up for one of the areas, everyone enjoyed the day shopping, having a delicious lunch with friends, purchasing some wonderful bake goods, and took their chances with the great Silent Auction. More details to follow once all has been accounted for.

FAIR TRADE

Fair Trade Chocolate, Coffee, Tea, and Cocoa will be available for purchase in the narthex at the following times in November:

- During Marketplace on Saturday, November 1st
- After the 5 pm service on Saturday, November 8th
- After the 8:30 am service on Sunday, November 9th
- Before and after the 11 am service on Sunday, November 9th

IMAGES FROM REFORMATION SUNDAY

70, GIRLS, 70!

Salem Players' recent production of 70, Girls, 70 was highly successful! This musical was perhaps not as well known as some of their past shows, but the music by John Kander and lyrics of Fred Ebb were catchy and fun. Salem members Anita Lane and Linda Fleischer had leading roles, supported by Nick Mason and Tim Toscano. Pastor Stan Steele playing (what else?) a pastor was a wonderful addition. Other Salem Player regulars included Elinor Bower (who started her career in drama camp) and Jane Nitsch. There was an excellent band, which included Michael Fitch on trumpet. Salem members were backstage as well: Sara Toscano was Assistant Director, Lisa Yerkey was producer, and Paul Timmel, Amanda Yerkey and Jim Kempton did lighting and sound. Other very important spots were filled by Shannon Willing (graphic design), Patricia Morgan (costumes), Tim VanSant (sound effects), Karen Amy (publicity) and Julie Kempton (house manager). The box office included Sharon Stanton, Janet VanSant, Karen Amy, Ed & Vicky Whetstone and Sue OConnor.

Over 300 people attended, including many from the wider community. Two of the six performances were sold out and all the shows had an appreciative audience. As usual, Salem Players tithed their profit, and donated $300 to the church. They also donated tuition for Drama Camp (worth $400), which is held every summer and introduces children to the love of theatre.

Salem Players has been entertaining the congregation and the community for 48 years! Their next production will be The Mouse That Roared, scheduled for next Spring. Want to audition? They'd love to have you, either on or behind the stage! Be sure to put it on your calendar and bring the whole family to see it. You'll have a great time!

Salem Supper Club

Hometown Christmas

The F.O.P. Lodge

*2832 Nine Mile Circle
Catonsville, MD*

All adults are invited to Salem Supper Club on December 6, 2025, at 6:30 PM for an evening of delicious food, entertainment and good fellowship. Bring a favorite dish to share which has nostalgic memories of a previous Christmas. A sign-up sheet will be in the Narthex on Sunday November 2, 2025. Enjoy a fun evening and, its free. Salem Supper Club has been a time of adult fellowship and entertainment for over 25 years. Many young people of Salem have been thrilled when they turned 18 and could finally attend.

CHILDREN'S HOME FOOD DELIVERY TEAM'S FOURTH ANNIVERSARY

Four years ago on November 1, 2021, volunteers from Salem began a food delivery ministry to support the children and staff of The Children's Home. This Catonsville nonprofit, established in 1863, provides residential therapeutic care to youth 13 to 21 who have experienced abuse, abandonment, neglect, violence, or are in need of supervised care. Our ministry came about when former pastor, Rev Dave Asendorf, contacted The Children's Home to ask how Salem could serve them. Expecting to hear that they were in need of tutors or mentors, he was surprised to learn that their biggest need was for reliable volunteers who could pick up food donated by Chick-Fil and deliver it to their kitchen three times a week. Chick-Fil-A, like all restaurants, has to refresh all the food they have on the service line at fixed times with freshly cooked food, but the food they pull is still good to eat. It is bagged up and put on a designated shelf in their walk-in freezer, where it is picked up by our volunteers every Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Children's Home kitchen staff can incorporate these donated biscuits, rolls, chicken, macaroni and cheese, etc. into the 160 or so meals they serve to the residents and staff every day. Prior to Salem volunteers assuming these deliveries, Children's Home staff had to go out and pick up the food three times a week.

In four years, our volunteers have done over 620 of these deliveries! An average daily delivery consists of about 60 pounds, so that comes out to over 37,000 pounds of food!

We have eleven current volunteers and ten past volunteers who have served faithfully.

As far as the impact of this ministry, the Children's Home staff regularly express their gratitude for the faithfulness of our team. In the past our group was honored by their Volunteer of the Year award. They have been dubbed by one staff member the "Stealth Volunteers," for being so steady, quiet and reliable. As for Chick-Fil-A, they noticed our team's consistency and commitment and gave a $100,000 Community Engagement award to the Children's Home to recognize their partnership with Salem volunteers. And at this year's annual meeting our volunteers were honored once again with an award for their service.

Dear Friends at Salem,
Thank you so much for your ongoing generosity and recent gift of $2,170 to support our neighbors around the world. At a time when funding streams are shifting and crises and disasters are on the rise, our ministry partnership is so important. Thank you for making a difference! We remain committed to responding to immediate and long-term needs on your behalf.
Peace, Lisa Kip

Thank You!

NO PHISHING
Don't take the bait!

Occasionally we hear about members receiving an email from one of the Pastors asking for gift cards or for us to pay a bill, etc.; because 'they are in a meeting' (or whatever) and 'can't take care of this right now.' This is ALWAYS a scheme to get something from you by someone else and this is NEVER from Salem's Pastors. Please, if you are contacted by anyone asking for money or gift cards and they say it is an emergency; contact us yourself first. Please don't take the bait in their phishing scheme!

WIFI AT SALEM

The Technology Committee has installed WIFI access throughout the church. This free internet access is available to members and guests. Users may access any of our four networks connections throughout the building. The password for all connections is SalemChurch.
